The registration information and schedule of events for the Eleventh Annual Summer Conference (August 30 & 31, September 1 & 2, 1973) is now out and circulating. Space is filling up rapidly, so reserve early. It will be an outstanding conference! Papers, panels and workshops in every field, parties inbetween.

The 1973 Eric Berne Memorial Scientific Award nominations are: Hedges Capers, L.H.D., for "The Stroke Survival Quotient" (TAJ 1:3); John M. Dusay, M.D., for "The Egogram" (TAJ 2:3); and Franklin Ernst, Jr., M.D., for "The OK Corral" (TAJ 1:4).

Thank you to Al Simpkin, Francis Cottingham and T.A. Hawaii, Inc. for their party for ITAA Members at the May A.P.A. Convention in Waikiki.

Please note that all of the dues and Trans Pub bills not paid by August 30 will be posted at the Summer Conference. The large ones will be made an issue of. Please don't play the game of debtor. Members are reminded that the ITAA and Trans Pubs are dependent on your support.

The Transactional Analysis Video Journal is now a reality and consists of 12 lectures including more than enough for official 101's. The films are available in cassettes and 1/2 inch video tapes, black and white. Also available in audio cassettes. The lecturers are Muriel James, Fanita English, Mary Boulton, Jack Dusay, Stephen Karpman, Edgar Stuntz, H. D. Johns, Morris & Natalie Haimowitz, Robert & Mary Goulding, Solon Samuels and one lecture given by Hedges Capers and Ken Everts. These are approximately one hour lectures each and they will be for rent or sale. Prices will be interesting but they have not yet been set. This journal is being maintained by a committee of two acting as co-directors - Ken Everts and Hedges Capers. It is to be updated and added to when needed.

PEOPLE & EVENTS

Help for authors and would-be authors is now available through Ravings Press in Berkeley. A publishing co-op specializing in TA projects, Ravings is designed for people who want to publish their own books, pamphlets or monographs. The company offers editorial design and production services through Jean Peters and Lloyd Lindford who joined the staff of the Transactional Analysis Journal as co-managing editors in April. Lloyd and Jean can be reached at 3664 - 16th Street, San Francisco 94114, or by telephone at 415/552-0675.

Katherine J. Hallet, PTM, Director of Transactional Analysts in St. Louis, Inc, and Carl Carter, CM, have begun single parent TA groups for those persons who by death, separation, divorce or never married have single parent status. Along with traditional TA material they are using Katherine's new book Keeping Yourself Together, a TA manual specifically designed for the single parent.

In July Fanita English has been invited to do another week long workshop for the University of Chicago School of Social Service Administration. Following that Fanita will leave in September for a month of workshops in Yugoslavia and Germany. Fanita's article "Transactional Analysis and Script Today" which appeared in "Psychology Today" - April, is now available in reprint form from Transactional Pubs.

Larry Kokkelenberg of Chicago has gathered Muriel Adler, CM; Nancy Byram, CM; Darlene Doud, CM; and Ted Novey, CM, as well as other advanced TA students to open a new treatment and training center, A Place for Human Understanding. In addition to TA 101's and supervised practicums, the Center is offering focused courses in TA such as TA for Teachers, TA in Human Sexuality and other workshops for personal growth. Their address is 5723 N. Milwaukee, Chicago, Illinois 60646.

A cooperative training program is developing in Chicago consisting of Muriel Adler, CM; Ted Novey, CM; Darlene Williams, CM; Nancy Byram, CM; and Larry Kokkelenberg, PTM. They are cross training with Dawn Radtke, PTM, of Milwaukee; Dick Chartier, CM, and Don Kaufman, TM, of Madison and Edgar Stuntz, PTM, of Indiana. Anyone in the Mid-west area who is interested in further developing this cooperative training venture please send their ideas, requests and programs to Larry Kokkelenberg, 5723 N. Milwaukee Ave., Chicago, Illinois 60646.

Frank H. Ernst, Jr., M.D. and Jenny Lou Ernst, B.A., announce their advanced TA 202 Seminar series beginning July 11 and the last series beginning May, 1974. Time: 7:30 - 9:30 p.m., 631 Tennessee St., Vallejo, California 94590.

Helen Colton from the Family Forum in Los Angeles has been traveling extensively speaking on her new book "Sex After the Sexual Revolution", a new addition to the TA literature.

The American Group Psychotherapy Association is looking for a TA expert who is also familiar with general systems theory. Anyone with these two qualifications please write to Robert L. Goulding, M.D., 262 Gaffey Rd, Watsonville, California 95076.

Vince Gilpin with the Kingston TA Seminar in Ontario, Canada has been conducting weekend workshops in TA and Gestalt in Montreal in February, April and May and will be teaching a workshop in Transactional Analysis at Carlton University School of Social Work. Plans are afoot for workshops in Kingston, Toronto and Ottawa.

Dr. Roberto Kertesz, President of ANTAL (Asociacion Argentina De Analisis Transaccional) announces the publication of Introduction to TA in Spanish, which is also distributed through Transactional Pubs.

Would all ITAA members interested in being on the mailing list for the Transactional Analysis Management Institute please send a postcard with name and address to Transactional Analysis Management Institute, Dorothy Jongeward - Director, 487 Malaga Way, Pleasant Hill, California 94523.

Peter Freeman, RM, is listed in the University of Portland summer session 1973 catalogue as "Trustee and Teaching Member ITAA". That was an editorial error which was intended to read "Has studied under Fanita English, Trustee and Teaching Member ITAA". Peter does not want this misrepresentation to spread.

Richard Erskine, Ph.D., PTM, reports that he is in the process of developing a graduate program in the treatment of emotionally disturbed and socially maladjusted children and will use Transactional Analysis as one of primary therapeutic techniques at the University of Illinois, Department of Special Education. For further information contact Dr. Erskine, Dept. of Special Education, University of Illinois, 1005 W. Nevada Street, Urbana, Illinois 61801.
