NEWSLETTER OF THE INTERNATIONAL TRANSACTIONAL ANALYSIS ASSOCIATION

Vol. 111, No. 3 - November, 1973

President: Kenneth V. Everts, M.D.
Business Manager: Stephen B. Callahan

ANNOUNCEMENTS

A new facet of ITAA operations is the Scholarship Task Force; a group of people approved by the Board of Trustees, charged with the task of making TA available to poor and minority people. The Scholarship Task Force consists of:

Emily Rupert, 3717 N. Farwell, Milwaukee, Wisc. 53211
Jean Maxwell, Suite 200, 2510 N. Mesa, El Paso, Texas 79902
Betty Butler, 10229 Gregory Ct., St. Louis, Mo. 63128
Denton Roberts, 822 E. 20th, Los Angeles, Ca 90011
Jack Davey, 5110 Westeman Ave., Omaha, Neb. 68132
John P. Anderson, 4913 Baltimore, Kansas City, Mo. 64112
Carla Haimowitz, 540 Alcatraz Ave., Oakland, Ca 94609
Alan Jacobs, 2106 Sheffield, Chicago, Ill 60614

Their task is to make treatment and training in Transactional Analysis available to minority and low-income persons. Other ideas on how to acquire and how to disperse funds are the jobs of ITAA and this group. How TA information is used is the responsibility of each member of ITAA and any ideas on how to better make available this information to people who ordinarily don't have it should be sent to one of the above people.

TO ALL PERSONS SUBMITTING CONTRACTS FOR TRAINING! The office requests you to send in three (3) copies. This will speed up the processing of your contract. Also, be sure you are a Regular Member before applying for advanced membership. This will also speed up the processing of your contract.

ALL CHECKS for membership dues and services must be made payable to "I.T.A.A.". Checks in payment for materials from the bookstore must be made payable to "Trans Pubs". The two units are not interchangeable and one check for both books and services will only be lengthily delayed.

MISSING FROM ITAA OFFICE: 3 Video tapes, reel-to-reel - showing lectures by 1. Bob & Mary Goulding, 2. Stephen Karpman, 3. Morris & Natalie Haimowitz. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of these expensive tapes, please notify Ken Everts.

TA 101 beginning 2nd Wednesday on December 12 at 7 p.m. - 9 p.m. - 3155 College Avenue, Berkeley, Ca. Instructor is Kenneth V. Everts, M.D., using the ITAA Video Journal. Call 658-1214 or 653-1420 for further information. 7 - 8 weeks with the possible exception of Christmas week. $65.00.

COURSES AND TRAINING

The Wisconsin Institute for TA is offering training on several levels. 101 workshops are held in Madison about once every three months. Special 101's for agencies or interested groups can be arranged. An open-ended ongoing 202 seminar will include didactic presentations, discussion of advanced TA topics and presentations of group treatment tapes. The 202 Seminar will meet on the second and fourth Thursdays of every month from 8 - 10 p.m. and is open to professionals who have completed the 101 Course. Annual fee: $10.00. A supervisory group also open to mental health professionals who have completed a 101 will meet the third Saturday of each month from 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. The fee is $35.00 with registration at least one week in advance. For further information on the above activities, please contact Jack or Dorothy Kaufman, 106 Doty, Madison, Wisc 52703. Phone: 608/256-6205.

The Central LA TA Seminar, established this summer at the USC Religious Center, 835 W 34th St., Los Angeles, announces a workshop on "TA and Radical Psychiatry" with Dr. Claude Steiner (TM), March 28, 29 and 30, 1974. The cost will be $50.00 with reserve deposits of $10.00 through the Central LA TA Seminar. (Please see our "News of Affiliates" section for details on CLATAS).

The Rocky Mountain TA Associates, Inc. will be presenting an Advanced Weeklong Workshop November 5 - 10, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily for $250.00. For further information contact them at 6202 South Broadway, Littleton, Colorado. Phone: 795-0702.

Beginning in October the Service League of San Mateo County will be sponsoring a training program in TA for all the personnel of the Sheriff's Honor Camp. This is one of the three jails in the San Mateo County jail system. This is the beginning of a formal three year research program. The training program will be modeled closely after the program at O. H. Close School for Boys in Stockton. John R. McNeel (PTM) is the director of the training and research for this program. Jack Johnston (RM) is the primary developer of seminars to teach TA to all of the inmates of the Honor Camp. Jack is also in charge of establishing an ongoing teaching program in TA in the Camp. George Deabill (PTM) is in charge of volunteer training and volunteer coordination in the jail system. Shirley D'Andrea (RM) is assisting George Deabill in training volunteers. (This program is being partially funded by a grant from the S. H. Cowell Foundation).

Duncan (PTM) and Joyce Cameron (RM) will be leading several courses and workshops in San Anselmo, California in the near future. A weekend 101 is scheduled for December 7 - 9 at $70.00 including meals. A twelve-hour Personal Growth Minithon will take place November 10 from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. with a fee of $50.00 for individuals and $80.00 for couples. A workshop entitled "Introduce Your Marriage to TA" is scheduled for October 20 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. for $55.00 per couple (including lunch). For further information please contact Duncan Cameron at the Lloyd Education Center, Austin & Kensington, San Anselmo, California 94960. Phone: 415/453-2805.

The Southeast Institute (formerly FREE) will offer a full four-week course from October 20 until November 21, taught by the faculty, visiting staff and guest lecturers. The course will be held in Chapel Hill. Write P.O. Box 2183, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514 for details.

Two institutes are scheduled at the Asklepieion Foundation, 520 S. University Avenue, Carbondale, Ill 62901 for the fall of 1973. They will be "TA in the Ministry" (October 1 - 7) and "The Transactional Analysis of Character Disorders" (November 12 - 18).

The Chicago-North Suburban TA Institute announces twice monthly seminars for mental health professionals and students covering areas of theory, practice and new applications of TA. The Chicago-North Suburban TA Institute is continuing the monthly meetings previously held by the Chicago TA Institute at the North Suburban Clinic, 4801 W. Church St., Skokie, Ill. The dates will be the first and third Tuesdays of each month at 7:45 - 9:45 in the evening. For additional information, please call Lee Mannel, Secretary/Treasurer at 256-1152 or Sydney B. Mannel, M.D. at OR4-9800 (Mon., Thurs., Sat., & Sun.) or 649-4589 (Tues., Wed., and Fri.).

NEWS OF AFFILIATES

ITAA's affiliate in Argentina, ANTAL, is planning to publish four books in the near future to add to the Spanish language books on TA. Their first book, "Introduccion al Analisis Transaccional" is now available from Trans Pubs at $7.50 a copy. The four projected publications are 1) a briefer manual on TA with recent advances, 2) Couple therapy, 3) TA Child Therapy and 4) Gestalt therapy (in a TA framework). Advanced members Muriel James, Dorothy Jongeward, Jack Dusay, Steve Karpman, Bob and Mary Goulding, Fanita English, Jacqui Schiff and Jerry White, among others, are being invited to contribute to these books.

Bob and Mary Goulding plan to travel to South America in December, 1973, staying a few days in Buenos Aires, where they will be welcomed by the Asociacion Argentina de Analisis Transaccional (ANTAL). Jack and Kathy Dusay also plan to visit ANTAL in January, 1974.

There are presently eight clinical trainees enrolled in the program and two additional trainees under contract in Guam and Calgary, British Columbia, Canada. Duncan will be traveling to Guam later this year to conduct four 101's for military personnel who are stationed there.

The Transactional Analysis Institute of Contra Costa County, California under the leadership of Muriel James (TM) held its 2nd annual conference the weekend of April 14. Well attended, the conference was an abundant banquet of "goodies" for both the Adult and the Child of the participants. Muriel, known for her SRO crowds at the San Francisco summer conferences, did it again with presentations both Friday and Saturday. Other well-known presenters included ITAA President and consultant to the Institute, Ken Everts, Warren Cheney, Pam Levin, Ken Ernst and Leonard Campos. A playroom for grown-up's attracted the you-know-what of participants throughout the day, and in the evening many of us joined the serpentine dance line led by Muriel and President Ken around the banquet tables. A great conference!

On July 13 and 14 the Third Annual Summer Conference for Interpersonal Understanding, co-ordinated by Larry Mart (TM) was held in Sacramento with over 400 in attendance. Co-moderators for the event were Gordon Haiberg and Gaylon Palmer.

The Sacramento Area Institute for Group Treatment, Transactional Analysis Seminars is now conducting a 202 Seminar on a weekly basis. The Board of Directors consists of Larry E. Mart, L.C.S.W.
